Roane County Democratic Party to Elect New Leaders at LEAD 2020: County Party Leadership Elections Convention

All County Democrats Welcome

(Kingston, TN) – The Roane County Democratic Party will hold a Biennial Reorganization Convention to elect new leaders on March 30, 2019. Doors open for registration at 10:00 am., convention start time is 12:00 pm. The meeting will take place at the Rockwood Municipal Building.

Local Democrats will elect a new Chairperson, Vice Chairperson(s), Secretary, Treasurer and the Executive Committee for Roane County for a two-year term. All Democratic residents who are eligible voters of Roane County are urged to attend to discuss the party's agenda and events for 2019-2020. During reorganization, attendees will evaluate the effectiveness of their County Party bylaws and leadership. Each County Party determines its own needs, elects new leaders and enacts reforms to build a stronger grassroots organization.

The Reorganization Convention is open to all Roane County Democrats. Attendees should arrive early to complete credentialing forms and be admitted to the convention prior to 12:00 noon when the meeting will begin.
